

FINANCIAL AID

UVa-Wise is committed to offering a quality education at an affordable cost. Financial aid is available from many sources to supplement the contributions students and their families make. The Office of Financial Aid helps students and their families explore the various sources of financial assistance.

TYPES OF AID

Financial aid is divided into two major categories:

1. SCHOLARSHIPS are given to honor outstanding achievement. Applications may be obtained from the Office of Financial Aid. Freshmen applying for scholarships under the Early Admissions programs must submit a General Scholarship Application to the Office of Financial Aid by February 1. Transfer students applying for scholarships and returning students seeking to renew their scholarship must submit a General Scholarship Application by April 1 of the year aid is sought.
2. NEED-BASED AID is based solely upon the family's ability to provide financial support for the cost of education. A student applying for need-based aid is required to submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to Federal Student Aid Programs and designate The University of Virginia's College at Wise, Title IV Code Number 003747, as a recipient of the need analysis report. The FAFSA should be completed and mailed or submitted electronically by February 15 each year so results can be received by the priority financial aid date of April 1 for freshmen and returning students and May 1 for transfer students.

The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) may be obtained from high school guidance offices or from the Office of Financial Aid at UVa-Wise. Students can also submit their FAFSA or renewal FAFSA electronically at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Applications are considered on the basis of need, regardless of sex, color, religion, age, or national origin.

VETERANS BENEFITS

The Office of Financial Aid is the College's liaison with the Veterans Administration in matters concerning educational benefits provided under federal law. This office assists in filing applications for educational benefits, authorizes the purchase of books and supplies to which veterans receiving benefits are entitled, and acts for the College in correspondence regarding veteran activities.

Applications for veterans educational benefits should be filed three months before enrollment at UVa-Wise to insure that funds can be approved in a timely fashion. The Office of Financial Aid will assist the applicant in completing the appropriate forms, or the veteran may apply directly to the Veterans Administration. Questions about benefits or application procedures should be directed to the Office of Financial Aid.

FINANCIAL AID PROCEDURES

The following procedures should be followed in making application for financial assistance at UVa-Wise:

1. Apply for admission to UVa-Wise.
2. Complete and file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as soon after January 1 as possible (for fall enrollment). To be considered for the greatest number of financial aid options available, you should file by February 15 for the fall semester and October 15 for the spring semester.
3. On the FAFSA, you should request that a copy of the results be sent to UVa-Wise, 1 College Avenue, Wise, VA, Title IV Code Number 003747.
4. Keep copies of your FAFSA, tax returns, award letter, etc.
5. Reply promptly to any correspondence or request for information regarding financial aid.

6. Contact the Office of Financial Aid at UVa-Wise for assistance.

SCHOLARSHIP POLICY

Scholarships are renewable for up to four years provided that recipients maintain at least a 2.5 grade point average, earn at least 24 semester hours credit by the completion of each spring semester (including the previous fall), maintain good social standing, reapply annually before April 1, write letters of thanks to applicable donors and, if invited, attend the annual scholarship luncheon. Based upon available funding at the time the renewal award is made, the source for each award is subject to change from year to year.

Any student receiving an academic scholarship award who does not maintain continuous enrollment at UVa-Wise must notify the Office of Financial Aid upon acceptance for readmission.

To resume an academic award upon readmittance, the student must have been eligible for continuation at the time enrollment ceased. If the student has not attended any other institution since enrollment at UVa-Wise, the scholarship award will be continued, but the amount of the award may not be equal to the original award. If the student has attended any institutions other than UVa-Wise, all transfer work will be evaluated and the student's combined grade point average must be equal to or greater than the grade point average the student possessed at the time of "stopping out," and must be at least 2.5 on a 4.0 scale.

Any student receiving an academic scholarship award who does not comply with the aforementioned renewal criteria will have the scholarship award withdrawn. If the student corrects the grade deficiency and once again meets academic standards for the award, the student may reapply for scholarship awards and his or her application will be considered with other currently enrolled students applying for first-time awards. Should the student receive an award, the amount and name of the award may not be the same as the original award.

INSTITUTIONAL LOAN PROGRAMS

The University of Virginia's College at Wise Emergency Loan Fund was established to help students meet emergency, unanticipated financial expenses when financial aid or other sources of funding are not immediately available. Emergency situations may be, but are not limited to, travel expenses for the student to return home in case of family emergency, medical expenses or purchasing medical insurance. The purchase of books and supplies pending the receipt of financial aid or student loan refund is not considered an emergency. A student must be enrolled in at least 12 on-campus credit hours in a degree program to be eligible for this assistance. Students may borrow up to $300 and are limited to one loan per semester. The loan period may not exceed 90 days in length and must be repaid prior to the start of the next semester or term. Interest is not charged to the borrower. The application is available in the Cashier's Office or Accounting Services.

EMERGENCY FUNDS

The Fred Culbertson Emergency Fund was established in 1995 by the family of Fred Culbertson to assist students in seeking a degree at UVA-Wise. The Fund is designed to assist students who encounter unplanned expenses or other emergency needs. Written requests are to be submitted to the Office of Financial Aid.

STATE FUNDED SCHOLARSHIPS

The Virginia College Scholarship Assistance Program provides grants, based on financial need, to Virginia residents who are students in public or private colleges. The award ranges from $500 to $2,000. To apply for this aid, students complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and designate UVa-Wise as recipient of this information. For further information, contact the Office of Financial Aid at UVa-Wise.

The Virginia Student Financial Assistance Program is a need-based scholarship program for qualified Virginia residents. It is designed to assist students demonstrating financial need by providing for a portion of their college costs. State statute requires that awards be proportional to need, so that students with the greatest need receive the largest awards. In order to maintain eligibility, students must demonstrate a 2.0 or greater grade point average after completing 60 credit hours. Students may receive assistance for up to 135 credit hours, including any transfer hours accepted. The program has two components:

* The Commonwealth Scholars Grant (COMMA) is available to Virginia residents with demonstrated financial need. These awards range from $500 to annual tuition and one-half required fees.

* Virginia Guaranteed Assistance Program (VGAP) is available to those entering freshmen who graduate from a Virginia high school and have an academic grade point average of 2.5 or greater. The VGAP award ranges from $500 up to annual tuition and fees.

KENTUCKY TUITION ASSISTANCE GRANT (KTAG)

With the permission of the Commonwealth of Virginia, UVa-Wise is able to offer tuition assistance to Kentucky students who physically reside within a 50 air mile radius of Wise. Students who reside in Breathitt, Floyd, Harlan, Knott, Leslie, Letcher, Magoffin, Perry, or Pike County are eligible for the grant. For the 2004–2005 academic year, qualified recipients will be awarded the following assistance:

- $5,537 per year to freshmen and to transfer students who possess less than 60 transferable hours of college work and are classified as full time students at UVa-Wise (taking 12 or more semester hours);
- $7,135 per year to transfer students who possess 60 or more hours of transferable work and are classified as full time students at UVa-Wise (taking 12 or more semester hours);
- $218 per credit hour for part-time students at UVa-Wise students (taking less than 12 semester hours).

To qualify for the grant, students who physically reside in one of the aforementioned counties must complete an Application for Kentucky Tuition Assistance Grant Privileges, available from the Office of Admissions or the Office of Financial Aid.

UVA-WISE

TENNESSEE TUITION ASSISTANCE GRANT (TTAG)

With the permission of the Commonwealth of Virginia, UVa-Wise is able to offer tuition assistance to Tennessee students who physically reside within a 50 air mile radius of Wise. Students who reside in Hawkins, Sullivan or Washington County are eligible for the grant. For the 2004–2005 academic year, qualified recipients will be awarded the following assistance:

- $5,537 per year to freshmen and to transfer students who possess less than 60 transferable hours of college work and are classified as full time students at UVa-Wise (taking 12 or more semester hours);
- $7,135 per year to transfer students who possess 60 or more hours of transferable work and are classified as full time students at UVa-Wise (taking 12 or more semester hours);
- $218 per credit hour for part-time students at UVa-Wise students (taking less than 12 semester hours).

To qualify for the grant, students who physically reside in one of the aforementioned counties must complete an Application for Tennessee Tuition Assistance Grant Privileges, available from the Office of Admissions or the Office of Financial Aid.

FEDERAL PROGRAMS

The Federal Pell Grant Program is the largest federal entitlement program for undergraduate students. Awards range from $400 to $4,050 for the 2004-05 academic year, for either full or part-time study. Students apply for the Federal Pell Grant by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). It is, however, up to the Office of Financial Aid to determine the amount of the award.

The Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) is a federal entitlement program administered by individual colleges and universities. SEOG awards range up to $3,000 per year at UVa-Wise. SEOG funds are limited and must first be awarded to students with the greatest amount of need who are eligible to receive Federal Pell Grants. Students apply for FSEOG by completing the FAFSA.

The Federal Perkins Loan Program is funded by the College and the federal government. It provides long-term, low-interest loans to students who demonstrate financial need. Competitive interest rates, repayment and deferment plans are available. Further information about criteria for cancellation may be obtained from the Office of Financial Aid. To qualify for these loans, students must be citizens or permanent residents of the United States.

The Federal Parents Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) is available to parents with a good credit history to supplement other financial aid sources and the amount they can afford to pay from available income for their students. This loan has a variable interest rate and is repayable within 60 days of the date of loan guarantee. The amount that can be borrowed varies and is based on the cost of education at UVa-Wise minus other sources of aid awarded. Contact the Office of Financial Aid for more information or for an application. Parents of students who have been awarded a PLUS loan can electronically submit or download and print a PLUS loan application at the college's financial aid web page at www.uvawise.edu/financial_aid/apply_faid.html.

The Federal Stafford Student Loan Program (Subsidized) is a federally authorized program designed to help students meet college expenses. Federal Stafford Loans are long term, low interest loans available to undergraduate students. Undergraduates may borrow up to $2,625 during their freshman year, $3,500 during the sophomore year, and $5,500 during the junior and senior years. Interest rates are variable at the time of application. Students are not charged for interest until repayment begins.

Applications are available through the Office of Financial Aid. Students who have been awarded a Subsidized Federal Stafford Student Loan can electronically submit or download and print a Stafford loan application at the college's financial aid web page at www.uvawise.edu/financial_aid/apply_faid.html. All applicants must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to determine eligibility for this loan.

All borrowers must be accepted for enrollment and be enrolled for at least six semester hours and making satisfactory academic progress. Borrowers must also be United States citizens or permanent residents.

The Federal Stafford Student Loan Program (Unsubsidized) was authorized by the Higher Education Amendments of 1992 and provides loans to middle-income borrowers who do not qualify, in whole or part, for federal interest subsidies under the Federal Stafford Loan (subsidized) program. Undergraduates may borrow up to $2,625 during their freshman year, $3,500 during the sophomore year, and $5,500 during the junior and senior years. Interest rates are variable at the time of application. The borrower is responsible for payment or capitalization of interest while in school.

Applications are available through the Office of Financial Aid. Students who have been awarded an Unsubsidized Federal Stafford Student Loan can electronically submit or download and print a Stafford loan application at the college's financial aid web page at www.uvawise.edu/financial_aid/apply_faaid.html. All applicants must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to determine eligibility for this loan. All borrowers must be accepted for enrollment and be enrolled for at least six (6) semester hours and making satisfactory academic progress. Borrowers must also be United States citizens or permanent residents.

Effective July 1, 1994 the Federal Supplemental Loan for Students (FSLs) was repealed and shifted to the Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan Program. To qualify, the borrower must be an independent student. Also, dependent students whose parents have been denied access to the Federal Plus Loan due to adverse credit are eligible.

Undergraduates who are at freshman and sophomore status may be eligible to borrow up to $4,000 in addition to the existing subsidized and unsubsidized limits. Undergraduates who are at the junior and senior status may be eligible to borrow up to $5,000 in addition to the existing subsidized and unsubsidized limits. Applicants must also complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) for this consideration.

WORK STUDY

The Federal Work Study Program (FWSP) is funded by the College and the federal government for students who wish to earn part of their college expense money. Work opportunities are available in almost all departments on campus. Eligible students are employed on the basis of qualifications and the availability of openings. Yearly work study earnings range from $500 to $3,000. To qualify, students must be accepted for enrollment or be enrolled at least half-time; be, in the opinion of the College, capable of meeting minimal academic progress requirements while employed; show need based on the Federal Need

FINANCIAL AID

Analysis Formula; and be a citizen or permanent resident of the United States.

Preference for such assistance is given to students from low-income families. The Office of Financial Aid determines qualifications, assigns jobs and processes payrolls. Hourly wages will meet the minimum wage law. Hourly employment is available on campus for a limited number of students. Students apply directly to the employing department and are paid from departmental funds. Hourly regular student employment earnings range upwards from minimum wage, depending upon the skills required for the job.

MINIMAL ACADEMIC PROGRESS REQUIREMENTS

On behalf of the College, the Office of Financial Aid reserves the right to review and cancel an award at any time because of changes in financial or academic status, change of academic program, or failure to meet the minimal academic progress standards.

The minimal progress standards require that students receiving financial aid maintain a sufficient grade point average while successfully completing a specified number of semester hours each year. Financial aid is defined as: Federal Pell Grants, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants, College scholarships and grants, Federal Work Study employment, Federal Perkins Loans, Federal Stafford Loans, and Federal PLUS loans.

The minimum standards are listed below:

At the end of this number of semesters	Semester hours completed should total	Grade Point Average should be
4	48	2.0
6	72	2.0
8	96	2.0
10	120	2.0

Students requiring financial assistance beyond 10 semesters must be reviewed by the Financial Aid Committee to assess progress toward meeting specified graduation requirements.

For the purpose of assessing satisfactory progress, semester hours completed in remedial classes are counted as hours attempted and completed.

UVa-WISE

Students attending on a less than full-time basis will have their eligibility measured on an equivalency basis.

When the standards listed above have not been met, financial aid will be withdrawn until the minimums are met. Semester hours completed in summer sessions (without financial aid through UVa-Wise) at UVa-Wise and courses pre-approved by the Provost and taken at other institutions can be used to make up deficiencies.

A student may request that the Financial Aid Committee grant an exception to the minimum standards. With that request, the student must submit written documentation of the reason for the appeal and a plan for meeting the minimum standards listed above. The appeals committee may request an interview with any student who requests such an exception.

Financial aid can be reinstated when a student has removed a deficiency. It is the responsibility of the student to notify the Office of Financial Aid when deficiencies have been removed. The student's progress will be monitored at the end of each academic year and a determination about the student's eligibility for further aid will be made in June for the summer and/or fall semester, allowing the student to make up semester hours during a summer session if necessary. Students entering for the first time or re-entering the College in the spring semester will have grades checked upon completion of that semester.

Students failing to meet minimal academic progress requirements will not be considered as having met the College's financial aid priority date. Therefore; if reinstated, access to need-based financial aid as detailed above will be awarded subject to fund availability.
